Wines of the Month

145 Condrieu, Domaine de Bonserine Rhône Viognier 2012 130.00

Lightly colored, yet not light on flavor or length, it gives up beautiful white peach, tangerine, honeysuckle and orange blossom. Medium to full-bodied, vibrant and classy, drink it over the coming year or two. The bottle ageing has done wonders in rounding out this excellent wine. Pairing it with seafood will be exceptional, or even drink it to add a light touch to a wonderful USDA Prime steak.

445 Château Ste. Michelle Washington Merlot 2016 58.00

There's immediate appeal to this wine's plum and cocoa aromas, with a little Syrah blended in (perfectly legal in the States) adding game and smoke. The flavors are fruit-forward with plenty of plushness that make it hard to resist. It doesn't seem entirely varietally correct but after the second sip all that is forgotten.
